

Year 3 – How was the Hull fishing industry great?

As writers we will:

- Write diaries as trawlermen and Lillian Bilocca.
- Create adventure stories.
- Write a balanced argument about as the Headscarf Revolutionaries.

As historians we will:
Be comparing Hull today with life in the 1960s. We will also be looking at the significance of Lillian Bilocca.

As mathematicians we will:
Calculate the passing of time and explore temperature using the shipping forecast.

As geographers we will:

- Learn about the human and physical features of Hull and East Yorkshire
- Locate cities and counties in the UK.
- Learn about the River Hull and Humber Estuary.

Where is Hull?

How has Hull changed though history?

Why was fishing important to Hull?

What was the triple trawler tragedy?

Who was Lillian Bilocca and why is she significant?

What does the city's fishing industry look like today?

Enrichment opportunities:

- Work with the HR Museum/ Heritage Centre.
- The Fish Trail
- Art exhibition
- Perform folk music.

Environment

As people concerned with our environment we will:

Explore the environmental impact of over fishing.

Enterprise

As enterprising people we will:

Contact a local fishmongers.
Cook and sell fishfingers at the enterprise fair.

Spiritual and Moral

In our spiritual and moral development we will:

We will discuss the bravery of the people involved in the head scarf revolution.

Communities

As members of a community we will:

Examine our community's photos and memorabilia of life in Hull in the past.